Provided further, however, that the charge to be made under this sub-heading shall in no case exceed three-fourths of the charge which the vendor's solicitor could have made for a completed conveyance or transfer as the case may be.

Purchaser's Solicitor's Costs

Where an agreement for sale and purchase has to be and is approved by the purchaser's solicitor, such solicitor may charge one-half of the amount allowed to the vendor's solicitor.

in respect of the agreement, the amount set out in this sub-heading, and in respect of the conveyance assignment or transfer when completed the scale charge under sub-headings I or II of this Division (A), less the amount charged in respect of the agreement for sale.
