Provided that where the land dealt with in any such agreement relates solely to land under the Real Property Act the scale charge of $5.00 under (b) shall be reduced by one-half.

Provided further, however, that the charge to be made under this sub-heading shall in no case exceed three-fourths of the charge which the vendor's solicitor could have made for a completed conveyance or transfer as the case may be.

Purchaser's Solicitor's Costs

Where an agreement for sale and purchase has to be and is approved by the purchaser's solicitor, such solicitor may charge one-half of the amount allowed to the vendor's solicitor.

The provisions under this sub-heading, except as herein otherwise provided, shall not apply when the transaction is subsequently completed by conveyance assignment or transfer and the same solicitor acts for the vendor, or intending vendor or the purchaser or intending purchaser, in reference to the agreement for sale, or proposed sale, and also acts for the vendor or purchaser in completing the conveyance assignment or transfer, but the scale charge provided for the work last mentioned shall also include the work done in respect of such agreement for sale or proposed sale.

When, however, the agreement for sale provides for a sale on terms extending beyond a period of twelve months:

- (a) Where such agreement has to be and is carried to the stage of investigating title (including perusal of Contract or Conditions of Sale if any) and otherwise to the stage of readiness for completion of transfer or other assurance the purchaser's solicitor may charge four-fifths of the scale charge under sub-headings I or II (as the case may be) of this Division (A) and in addition may charge in accordance with Schedule Two when the transaction is completed subsequently by transfer or other assurance.
- (b) Where such agreement is not so carried to the stage of readiness for completion of transfer or other assurance the appropriate amount set out in this sub-heading may be charged and in addition the scale charge under sub-headings I or II of this Division (A) may be made when the transaction is subsequently completed by conveyance assignment or transfer.

Where the same solicitor is acting for the vendor or the purchaser in respect of an agreement for sale (other than a sale on terms as mentioned above) and the subsequent completion thereof by conveyance assignment or transfer but the transaction is not so completed within three months from the date of the agreement, such solicitor may charge, in respect of the agreement, the amount set out in this sub-heading, and in respect of the conveyance assignment or transfer when completed the scale charge under sub-headings I or II of this Division (A), less the amount charged in respect of the agreement for sale.

Where part only of the land subject to any such agreement for sale or proposed sale is comprised in any such completed conveyance assignment or transfer the purchase money for such agreement or the reserve placed on the property shall be reduced by the purchase money paid (or apportioned if necessary) in respect of the land comprised in such conveyance assignment or transfer and the provisions under this sub-heading when otherwise applicable shall apply to such agreement for sale or proposed sale, but in respect only of such reduced purchase money or reserve.

Where the agreement is for sale of land by auction and the land or part thereof is not sold, and a subsequent agreement for sale or contemplated sale of the land or part thereof is prepared, the solicitor shall be entitled to charge for his work in respect of such first-mentioned agreement in accordance with the provisions of this sub-heading and in respect of such subsequent agreement by items in accordance with Schedule Two, provided that no charge shall be made for such subsequent agreement where the transaction is subsequently completed by conveyance assignment or transfer unless such subsequent agreement provides for a sale on terms as above mentioned when the appropriate amount set out in the sub-heading may be charged.

Rule 60 of the General Rules of the Land and Valuation Court amended 12th January, 1968 by adding at the end thereof the words "and may permit evidence to be given by affidavit".

New Rule 75A inserted after Rule 75 of the General Rules of the Land and Valuation Court on 12th January, 1968:

75A. Whenever a right of appeal to the Court is conferred by any Act, regulation, or other instrument, and no other provision for instituting the appeal is prescribed, the appeal may be instituted by lodging with the Registrar a notice of appeal in or to the effect of Form 30. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be served on such persons and within such time as the Court may, on an application for directions under Rule 75, direct. Such application shall be made within seven days of lodging the notice of appeal.

Rules 34, 39 and 41 rescinded 12th December, 1968 and new Rules 34, 39 and 41, substituted as follows:

34. Within twenty-eight days, or such further time as may have been allowed by the Court for the purpose, from the pronouncing in Court of any order, judgment, decision or finding, any party may lodge with the Registrar a notice requiring the Court to state a case for the Supreme Court. Every such notice shall, except when given by the Minister, be accompanied by a deposit of $40 as security for any costs that the person giving the notice may be ordered to pay. At or after the lodging of such notice, but before the expiration of fourteen days after the expiration of the twenty-eight days or further time as aforesaid, such person shall serve the Registrar with a draft of the case to be thereafter settled by the Court, and shall also serve the other party or parties concerned with a copy of such draft. Every such draft shall be in or to the effect of Form 7A with such modifications or additions as the circumstances may require. At the same time such person shall take out and serve upon the other party or parties concerned, pursuant to Rule 31 (3), a notice of motion for the settling of the terms of the case for the Supreme Court. Any party so served shall bring in on the return day a sufficient number of typewritten copies of any substantial alteration of, or addition to, the draft of the case which he intends to propose on the settlement of the case, and may on the return day take any objection or exception which he desires to take to the statement of a case or of any question in the draft case or to the terms of the draft. The Judge may give such directions as may seem proper for the bringing in of any fresh draft or drafts. Within fourteen days after settlement of the draft case the party who has lodged the notice requiring the Court to state a case shall lodge with the Registrar an engrossment for signature by the Judge of the special case for the Supreme Court as settled, together with a copy of such engrossment.

39. Any order, judgment, decision or finding made by the Court shall, as between party and party, be evidenced by a certificate thereof: Provided that any certificate issued by the Registrar may upon cause shown be rectified or amended by the Court.

41. Upon the day appointed the Registrar shall settle the terms of such certificate and shall issue the same by signing it and affixing the Seal of the Court thereto.
