All causes remaining untried at any Sittings shall be set down by the Prothonotary, each according to its appropriate list for the then next Sittings; and no new notice of trial, or to produce documents, shall be necessary. Every such cause shall have precedence over causes previously set down for those Sittings.

APPLICATION FOR NEW TRIAL.

150. Every application for a nonsuit, or for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment, or for judgment non obstantes verdicto, or for a venire de novo, or to enter a verdict, or to increase or reduce the amount of the verdict, shall be by notice of motion, and no rule nisi order to show cause or formal proceedings other than such notice of motion shall be made or taken. The moving party shall within eight days (or in causes tried at Circuit Courts within fourteen days) after the trial file a notice of appeal, together with all affidavits to be used in support of such motion. Provided that any such affidavits may, by leave of the Court or a Judge, be filed at a later date.

151. Every such notice of motion shall state the day or days on which the cause was tried, the verdict given or other termination of the trial, the motion intended to be made, and the grounds on which it will be made; and when the party had counsel at the trial shall be signed by one of such counsel.

151a. A copy of every such notice of motion shall be left at the chambers of the Judge before whom the cause was tried on the day on which it is filed, and a copy thereof, and of any affidavit that may be filed in support thereof, shall on the day on which it is filed be served upon each opposing party or upon each solicitor on the record.

152. Rescinded by rule of 31st July, 1913, and following rule substituted:—On or before the last day limited for filing such notice of motion, the moving party shall order a copy of the notes of the Judge before whom the cause was tried, and of his summing up, and within fourteen days after receiving the same shall file a printed copy of such notes, summing up, and of such exhibits or parts thereof as the Judge shall direct, and at the same time lodge three additional printed copies, and shall also within the same time serve four printed copies upon all parties upon whom a copy of the notice of appeal is required to be served: Provided that a Judge may on such conditions as he thinks fit extend the times for ordering, filing, lodging, and serving copies of such notes, summing up, and exhibits, and he may, upon the application of any party to such notice of motion, dispense with the printing or ordering of such notes, summing up, and exhibits, or any of them, or any portion of them, respectively, and may direct a greater or less number of printed copies to be lodged or served upon any of the said parties.

154. Every such notice of motion shall be for the first day on which the Court sits in Banco after the expiration of sixteen days from the filing of such notice: Provided that no matter in which printed copies of the Judge's notes have to be filed and served shall be called on for hearing before such copies have been filed and served, or the time for so doing has expired, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise directs.

155. The moving party will be restricted upon the hearing to the grounds specified in the notice of motion.

157. The Associate of the Judge who tried the cause shall attend the Court on the hearing of the motion with the issues, exhibits, and other papers, and shall discharge thereafter the duties of the Prothonotary in respect of such motion until the same is disposed of.

PARTIES NOT READY TO PROCEED.

158. Where a notice of motion under Rule 150 hereof has been filed and no motion is made when the case is called on for hearing, the motion shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be dismissed with costs.

Notice to Candidates for the Final Law Examination.

1. The English text-books prescribed for this Examination are, in great measure, prescribed for the purpose of indicating the scope and subject matter of the examination; but, on all subjects where the law in force in New South Wales differs from the English law, candidates are required to make themselves acquainted with the law in force in New South Wales. Text-books or parts of text-books which require to be read in connection with the local statutes are marked with an asterisk.

2. Candidates are reminded that English Statutes passed after the 25th July, 1828, are not in force in this State, except in cases where the enactment has been made binding by the Imperial Parliament, either expressly or by necessary implication. At the same time, a considerable number of English Statutes passed after that date (such as the English Wills Act, 1837), have been expressly adopted by the local Legislature: whilst a considerable number of other local enactments are based on similar enactments passed in the United Kingdom. As to how far law in force in England prior to the 25th July, 1828, applies in New South Wales, reference may be made to Webb's "Imperial Law." As to how far English Statutes have been adopted by, or embodied in, local legislation, reference may be made to Curlewis' "Table of Statutes."

3. In cases where local Statutes are expressly prescribed as subjects for examination, the examination will be confined, so far as possible, to the general tenor and essential, or more important, provisions of the Statutes referred to: or, in other words, to such matters as would find a place in a student's text-book. The English text-book will serve, to some extent, as a guide in this matter. Candidates may also obtain a few copies of previous papers, for the purpose of guidance, on applying to the Secretary to the Board.

4. Candidates are reminded that the State Laws on some of the subjects included in these examinations are liable to be superseded by Federal Legislation: whilst on other subjects the existing Acts are likely to be displaced by Consolidated Acts. Candidates are further reminded that they are liable to be examined in any Acts or Rules relating to the subjects of these examinations passed or made by either the State or the Federal Parliament more than six calendar months prior to the date at which such examinations may be held.

5. Where chapters, sections, or pages are referred to, the reference is to be deemed "inclusive" unless otherwise expressed.

Notice to Candidates for the Intermediate and Final Examinations in Law.

1. The English text-books prescribed for these examinations are, in a great measure, prescribed for the purpose of indicating the scope and subject matter of the examination; but, on all subjects where the law in force in New South Wales differs from the English law, candidates are required to make themselves acquainted with the law in force in New South Wales. Text-books, or parts of books which require to be read in connection with local statutes, are marked with an asterisk.

2. Candidates are reminded that English statutes, passed after the 25th July, 1828, are not in force in this State, except in cases where the enactment has been made binding by the Imperial Parliament, either expressly or by necessary implication. At the same time, a considerable number of English statutes passed after that date (such as the English Wills Act, 1837), have been expressly adopted by the local legislature; whilst a considerable number of local enactments have been based on similar enactments previously passed in the United Kingdom. As to how far law in force in England prior to 25th July, 1828, applies in New South Wales, reference may be made to Webb's "Imperial Law." As to how far English statutes have been adopted by, or embodied in, local legislation, reference may be made to Curlewis' "Tables of Statutes."

3. In cases where local statutes are expressly prescribed as subjects for examination, the examination will be confined, so far as possible, to the general tenor and essential or more important provisions of the statutes referred to: or, in other words, to such matters as would find a place in a student's text-book. The English text-books will serve, to some extent, as a guide in this matter.

4. Candidates are reminded that the State laws on some of the subjects included in these examinations are liable to be superseded by Federal legislation; whilst on other subjects the existing Acts may be displaced by Consolidated Acts. Candidates are further reminded that they are liable to be examined in any Acts or Rules relating to the subjects of these examinations passed or made by either the State or the Federal Parliament more than six calendar months prior to the date at which such examinations may be held.

5. Candidates are also advised, prior to entering on their studies for the final examination, to make themselves acquainted with the general tenor of both the Interpretation Act, 1897 (New South Wales), and the Acts Interpretation Act, 1901 (Commonwealth); whilst they are also reminded that the interpretation of Imperial statutes, applicable in either State or Commonwealth, is governed by the Interpretation Act, 1889 (Imperial).

6. Where chapters, sections, or pages are referred to, the reference is to be deemed "inclusive," unless otherwise expressed.

Examinations

will be held during each Term of 1921 upon the dates mentioned on page 209.

The subjects for examination will be as shown on pages 232 and 233.

Notice of intention to proceed to Examination must be lodged with the Secretary of the Board at latest by the dates shown on page 209, and cannot be received after those dates. The notice should state the name of the candidate in full. The amount of the fees should accompany the notice.

The fees for the examinations are as follows:— £ s. d.

Legal History	2	10	6

Two sections	5	10	6
Three sections	8	0	6
Four sections	10	10	6

73. (1) The following scale shall be taken as the standing scale of costs to be allowed to solicitors in connection with the obtaining grants of probate and letters of administration where no contention has arisen (such scale to include costs of any necessary briefs and all disbursements but not to include the costs incurred in satisfying the requisitions of the Commissioner of Stamp Duties upon the affidavit and inventory required under the Stamp Duties Act, 1893), and no further costs shall be allowed as a charge against an estate:—

- (2) In cases in which the net value of the estate as aforesaid does not exceed £500 the Court may in any case where the work has been of exceptional length or difficulty, give leave to the solicitor to tax his bill of costs, and the terms of the above proviso shall in that case apply to such bill. Such leave may be obtained by the solicitor leaving at the Chambers of the Probate Judge the bill of costs required to be taxed together with an affidavit showing the exceptional circumstances upon which he relies.
